Instructions:
Federal law allows financial aid offices to consider the costs incurred by a student in providing care for a dependent. The term “dependent” applies not only to children, but can include, for example, an elderly or disabled adult (including the student’s spouse). To qualify, the dependent must be included in the student’s household size. We can include these costs when determining a student’s federal student aid eligibility when the costs are not covered by other sources. To apply for the allowance you must provide our office with:

1. Name(s) and age(s) of your dependent(s) (Section 1, below);
2. Documentation of the type(s) of care that is necessary for your dependent(s) and the non-reimbursed costs you are incurring for the services provided. Please have your dependent care provider(s) complete Section 2 located on the back of this form (one per provider);
3. Documentation that your spouse is also attending college (submit class schedule) and/or is employed (submit copy of most recent pay stub, work schedule or letter from employer).

The allowance is provided to the family; if you are provided the allowance, your spouse is not entitled to the same allowance.
